

EYE-Q

Surgical Technician

EYE-Q Vision Care is seeking a full-time Surgical Technician to provide exceptional patient service and surgical support.

Primary responsibilities will include:

- Assisting Doctor during operative procedures.
- Ensuring the operating suite is adequately prepared for procedure.
- Monitoring PAR level of all surgical instruments and supplies.
- Cleaning and sterilizing all surgical instruments.
- Participation in departmental training, staff meetings, and safety programs.

Required qualifications include:

- High school diploma or equivalent
- Minimum two years of related experience.
- Ability to maintain collaborative working relationships to ensure a positive and productive work environment.
- Ability to plan and prioritize work with frequent interruptions.
- Attention to detail and strong organizational skills.
- Effective verbal and written English communication skills. Bilingual skills strongly desired.
- Knowledge and proficiency of medical information technology applications.
- Knowledge of Medical Terminology; ability to read, use and transcribe medical terms.

Job Type:

- Full-time

Required Experience:

- Surgical Technician: 2 years

To Apply:

- Prospective candidates should email their resume to careers@eyeqvc.com